Bye-law under clause (g).

1. A table showing the octroi leviable shall be open to the inspection of any person at the Municipal Office, and copies shall be supplied without charge to any person requiring the same. Such tables shall also be affixed in a conspicuous place at every post or office at which octroi is collected.

Bye-laws under clause (j).

2. The following posts have been established for the collection of octroi:—

(a) Peshávar road, near Burj Kálu Chinna.

(b) Khushálgarh road, near Deputy Commissioner's bungalow.

(c) Bannu road, near bridge of Jhang ravine, whence Bannu road and new Cantonment can be seen.

(d) Mír Khweli road, near junction with Jarwanda road.

(e) Hangu road, near trade post whence road to Barh, Hangu road, and road to Bawána can be seen.

3. Every person bringing dutiable goods into the Municipality shall bring them to one of the octroi posts.

4. When the goods have been examined by the octroi post Muharrir in accordance with sections 65 and 66 of the Act a pass, in duplicate, for such of the goods as are liable to octroi duty shall be furnished to the importer by the octroi post Muharrir.

5. Octroi duty may not be paid at the octroi posts, and any officer or servant of the Committee on duty at any such post who demands payment of octroi shall be liable to penalty as hereinafter provided.

6. The octroi Muharrir on furnishing a pass, in duplicate, to the importer in accordance with Rule 4 may take something in cash or kind from the importer by way of a pledge: Provided that in the case of the trader being known and trustworthy, the octroi Muharrir may allow him to pass on his own responsibility.

7. On receiving the pass and leaving the pledge (if any), the importer shall forthwith bring the taxable goods to the central octroi office, where they may be unloaded and weighed by the officer of the Committee appointed in this behalf. Should he fail or refuse to produce the invoice the value of the goods shall be assessed at current rates and octroi levied accordingly.

9. 10. The pledge (if any) deposited by the importer under rule 6 may be redeemed at any time on the production of the duplicate pass duly endorsed as provided in rule 7. Upon surrendering the pledge the post Muharrir shall retain one copy of the duplicate pass and shall return the other to the importer. The pass so returned shall be regarded as a receipt for the payment of octroi within the meaning of Section 51 of the Act.

11. Any carrying agent through whom goods are imported on behalf of persons resident within the Municipality may, on furnishing security of the amount of Rs. 500, be exempted from leaving a pledge at the octroi post, and from producing the goods imported through his agency for inspection at the central octroi office, provided that he makes arrangements satisfactory to the Committee for the supply to the Committee of correct and detailed lists of all goods imported through his agency, with the names of the consignees in each case. CONDUCT OF PROCEEDINGS AND THE ADJOURNMENT OF MEETINGS.
